

Tennyson House- Durham

Client Team Build Developments

Architect Alston Murphy Associates

This project consisted of the construction of a timber framed apartment block, which contained eight two-bedroom and three one-bedroom apartments. All finished to a high specification.

This development was constructed on a former public house with basement and adjacent end terrace property thus requiring innovative civil engineering solutions for the foundations and boundary wall treatment.

