

Manor House- West Pelton

Client BCE

Architect TBCL

This project consisted of a conversion of the existing manor house into 6 two-bedroom apartments and the refurbishment of an existing stable block and coach house into dwellings for multiple use.

A complete internal strip-out was required prior to works commencing which involved removing existing walls and remodeling the interior layout, and a full rewire of the electrical systems.

